

Waterloo Maple Completes sale of IQtraders.com

Assets Include MATHEMATICS.com Domain

WATERLOO, ON, CANADA, April 9, 2001-- Waterloo Maple announces that it has completed the sale of 100% of the outstanding shares of IQtraders.com Inc. ("IQT"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Waterloo Maple Inc., to ENGINEERING.com Inc., developer and owner of ENGINEERING.com, an Internet-based business and resource tool developed for the global engineering community.

IQT develops Web-based application solutions that use various computation engines to solve industry specific engineering problems. IQT's team of technology developers and management has begun working on enhancing the ENGINEERING.com site, including the development of additional engineering-related computational solutions. Plans are also being advanced for ENGINEERING.com to distribute and license the Maple software.

Under the terms of the agreement, ENGINEERING.com is acquiring all of the outstanding shares of IQT for a combination of 1.4 million common shares and warrants providing the ability to purchase an additional 400,000 to 800,000 shares of ENGINEERING.com, subject to future performance conditions.
